

Eric Franson DVM

Dr. Franson grew up just down the street from Court Street Veterinary Hospital in our very own Keene. He attended undergraduate college at the University of New Hampshire, in Durham where he received his bachelor's of Animal Science. After graduation, Eric was accepted to Veterinary school and studied abroad in the Caribbean at St. Georges University. Dr. Franson eventually made it to the Midwest where he finished graduate school in Minnesota. Currently living in Keene, with his dog Riley Eric enjoys reading, swimming, playing board games, watching movies, traveling and spending time with his friends and family. Dr. Franson is always ready and willing to help your pet, always there with a smile on his face and ready to do whatever is needed. If your pet falls ill after hours, his is the face you will most likely be seeing, as he is often "on-call" to see emergencies.
