

Jennifer Davis B.S,

Jen, who has loved animals all her life, lives in Winchester with her husband Scott. When at home, you will find Jen working with her animals or in the garden, she also enjoys horses and horseback riding. Jen takes great pleasure in advocating for animals and truly enjoys helping owners understand about the needs of their pets. Sometimes you will find Jen helping out Deb with the wildlife rehabilitation so watch for her! Jen has been with Court Street since 2006 and is an invaluable team player here. She has spearheaded our class IV laser therapy program, and is fully trained and very knowledgeable in laser therapy and would be happy to help answer any questions you might have.
