

RoseAnn Amato B.S.

Born and raised in Norwalk Ct, RoseAnn knew at a very young age she was meant to work in the animal care field. Today, with over 27 years of experience in the veterinary field, RoseAnn has the knowledge and experience to help you receive the very best care for your pets. Joining the Court Street team in 2014, she has a positive upbeat attitude and loves to educate clients and staff on the health of animals. RoseAnn is especially interested in educating the public about proper diet and nutrition, and cares about your experience here at Court Street. Anytime during the day you will find her reviewing our practices and products making sure we are offering you only the very best products and services. Married for 28 years with 2 grown children, a grandson, a chihuahua named "Pedro", a cat "Contessa" and 2 red eared sliders, "Elmer and Dollar". When she is not at the hospital, she enjoys spending time with her family, writing, reading and the great outdoors.
